500 Up

Lyrics by: Andrew Scott

Verse 1

She comes running down like water to splash around like the ones that taught her. She's just like that farmer's daughter. Everybody laughs at the joke. She don't know

Chorus

And we're laughing.
what it means. She just knows that it's not what it seems.

She just knows that it's not what it seems.

Eve-ry-bo-dy knows that she's going nowhere.

Go-ing no-where.

Eve-ry-bo-dy al-ways tells her how much they care. But all they reall-y care a-bout is

How much they care.
Growing their hair and getting it cut.

She don't know what it means.

She just knows that it's not what it seems.

She just knows that it's not what it seems.

And we're laughing.

And we're laughing.
She's running down much faster. Home base is around the corner. All she can hear is laughter. And that's all that's in store for her.
Sliding down wards you're
That's what they say.

Five hundred up.

The batter.

Five hundred up.

On the ladder.

She comes running down like water.

She comes running down like water.

She comes running down like water.

She comes running down.
Eve-ry-bo-dy knows that she's going no-where. Eve-ry-bo-dy always tells her how much they care. But how much they care.

All they reall-y care a-bout is cut-ting their hair and let-ting it grow. Cut-ting their hair and let-ting it grow. And we're laugh-
She don't know what it means. She just knows that it's not what it seems.

She just knows that it's not what it seems.

She's running down much faster.

Home base is around the corner. All she can hear is laughter.
And that's all that's in store for her.
