Verse 1

I once knew a pair that used to fit very tight. But now a man's standing tall in the wake of this night. Na na na na na.

His eyes are watering in anger at the thought of her sight.

Na na na na na. The scene of adultery sets the stage for his plight.

On an innocent trip how can one ruin so much? A belief in a soul, in a beauty, or in a touch.

It's like a three legged dog in search of a crutch.

Dissecting in past all the motives of such.
Verse 3

She once loved this person in a trial out of sight. Dis-pos-ing of the present sit-u-a-tion it felt right. Two win-ter-s and sum-mer-s passed over like a sound.

And now the two of them are lost in a screaming battle-ground.

Verse 4

With support all around him like a fence or a drink, he realizes es in sadness that now he must begin to think.

To filter his energy upon losses and fame.

That she'll think of the restless the peace-
