This publication comes as a result of the contributions of many people and organizations. First and foremost we extend our sincere appreciation to Dr Allen Pearson, Dean, Faculty of Education; Dr Robert Wood, Dean Faculty of Music; and the Music Education Department at the Don Wright Faculty of Music, the University of Western Ontario for their ongoing support to us in our respective faculties. Without hesitation, they provided unlimited facilities for the meetings in May, 2005, guidance, and administrative support for structuring the inaugural Canadian music education think tank.

The entire Board of Directors, Gregg Bereznick, Past President and Allen Anderson, President of the Canadian Music Educators Association provided encouragement as well as financial sponsorship throughout the project from the beginning when we suggested the idea to the publication of this manuscript. Our sincere thanks to each and every CMEA Board member for your faith in us through this project, especially Dr Betty Hanley, Professor Emeritus of the University of Victoria, who so willingly acted as a mentor to us throughout.

A great deal of credit must go to our graduate research assistants:

- Andre Heywood who provided primary administrative support in handling invitations to colleagues, preparing print materials, and as the official videographer and photographer during the meetings.
- Uresha DeAlwiss, assistant editor, correspondent, APA specialist, organizer, and the person who kept us smiling with her delightful sense of humour when we got tired.

- Stephanie Horsley, who voluntarily jumped into the editing process with us as we were coming to see the project as a whole, and needed an extra pair of hands.
- Chantel Vallier, undergraduate workstudy student and resourceful bio finder.

We extend our gratitude to the Canadian Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council for their support through a SSHRC Cluster Grant # R3408A05 that has enabled us, not only to publish this E-book and companion printed book, but to continue the work we began of setting up research clusters and networks in music education across Canada. Funding from this project will culminate in a second meeting of music educators, researchers, musicians, and others at Memorial University in St John's, Newfoundland. The grant ensures that we now have funding to support inclusion of colleagues from isolated and far places in Canada, as well as include our First Nations colleagues.

We gratefully acknowledge the contributions and collegueship of Dr Mary Kennedy, University of Victoria, Dr Wayne Bowman, Brandon University, Dr Louise Mathieu, Universite de Laval, Doyenne Anne Lowe, Universite de Moncton, Dr Andrea Rose, Memorial University, International Society for Music Education, CMEA, and the Coalition for Music Education in Canada for their partnership in fulfilling our research and networking goals as part of the SSHRC Research Cluster grant.

Finally sincere thanks to colleagues Linda Kulak, Manager, and Tina Beynen, Secretary of Graduate Studies in Education for their ongoing help with so many minute details and their endless patience.

Sincerely,

Carol Beynon & Kari Veblen
