Our Scope

Totem accepts papers on any subject within the fields of Socio-Cultural Anthropology, Archaeology, Biological Anthropology, and Linguistics, reflecting the composition of the Department of Anthropology at the University of Western Ontario. Our mandate, in general, is to publish research conducted within the department, though contributions from individuals at other institutions will be considered. As well, Totem is dedicated to publishing material from undergraduate-level students, graduate-level students, and doctorate level professionals. Submissions and inquiries should be addressed to totem, c/o The Anthropology Student Union, The Department of Anthropology, University of Western Ontario, N6A 5C2. Totem is at-present non-refereed. Though specialists may be consulted informally as needed, final selection of papers is the responsibility of the editors. The editors reserve the right to edit submissions. For information regarding the format of submissions please contact Totem, c/o Dr. Andrew Nelson or The Anthropology Student Union.

Funding

Totem is made possible through funding provided by the University Students’ Council and the Social Science Students’ Council at the University of Western Ontario.
