FERGUS NEWS RECORD. THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 17TH. 1942.

STORM DATE. P.M. WED. SEPT. 9TH. 1942.

By our ORTON Correspondent.

BARNS BLOWN DOWN IN EAST GARAFRAXA.

CYCLONE CUTS NARROW STRIP NORTH OF ORTON VILLAGE.

One of the worst wind storms for a quarter of a century struck a strip of country from the 10TH. CONCESSION of EAST GARAFRAXA to the 14TH. CONC. on Wednesday afternoon of last week, lasting just a few minutes.

On the 10TH. CONC., the barn belonging to LIONEL SOMERVILLE had about 15 large sheets torn off and carried several hundred feet.

On the 12TH. CONC., the barns of STANLEY TURNER and OSCAR LOCKER had the roofs partially blown off.

On the 13TH. CONC., the full violence of the wind completely demolished the barn of MR. NOAH KING and flattened other buildings and carried the roof boards hundreds of feet. Large trees were broken off and twisted like matchwood.

Across the road, at LESLIE COLLIN'S, half the roof was lifted off and carried more than 500 feet.

MR. KING was alone at the time, in the driving shed, and he heard the noise, but thought at first it was an aeroplane. He had his hand hurt by the door when trying to open it, when it blew shut again.
