LEITH STORM, CONT'D.

dashing rain and blackness of the sky were alarming. The wind blew down MR. JOHN VANWYCK'S silo, and wrecked MR. CHARLES HARLBUT'S silo and upturned sign boards. However, ANNAN is fortunate to have escaped so easily as LEITH suffered considerable loss.

KEMBLE.

The wind storm of Saturday last did considerable damage blowing down trees and fences. MR. ALBERT BECKETT'S silo was blown against his barn and MR. GEORGE MCKENZIES completely demolished. The heavy rain which accompanied was very acceptable, however, and has put new life in the crops and pastures.

OWEN SOUND SUN-TIMES, FRIDAY JUNE 18TH, 1920.

OWEN SOUND NORTH.

The heavy thunderstorm of last week claimed special toll in OWEN SOUND NORTH. The lightning struck a telephone pole on 19th. street, burned a large spot, and put 14 phones out of business. The electric lights were rendered useless, but no further harm is reported.

SHALLOW LAKE.

This section of the country was visited with severe electric storms on Thursday and Saturday, followed with beneficial rains which were welcome, as the crops and gardens were suffering with the drought.
