THE GLOBE, TORONTO, SATURDAY JULY 21ST. 1923.

STORM DATE. EVE., THURS. JULY 19TH. 1923.

RINK AT HAILEYBURY BLOWN DOWN BY STORM.

NEW LISKEARD SUSTAINS LOSS AND CROPS SUFFER IN NORTH COUNTRY.

(Special Despatch to The Globe)

COBALT, JULY 20. A heavy thunderstorm which swept over parts of this district last evening was responsible for the destruction of considerable property in TIMISKAMING, including the recently completed MARKET BUILDING and CURLING RINK at HAILEYBURY, which was blown down with an estimated loss of $2,500. Two houses in that town were struck by lightning. In NEW LISKEARD chimneys and trees were blown over, windows were smashed and gardens suffered in the worst storm in years. In the rural sections reports, as yet incomplete, indicate that in the MILBERTA, HUDSON and WHITE RIVER areas many buildings were wrecked and the crops suffered. COBALT escaped.
