STORM DATE: EARLY P.M., SUN., SEPT. 20 1925.

BLENHEIM DISTRICT HIT BY HEAVY GALE; FRUIT TREES, TELEPHONE LINES SUFFER.

(Special to The Free Press)

BLENHEIM, SEPT. 20: A terrific thunderstorm accompanied by almost a tornado, passed over this district early this afternoon and did considerable damage to fruit trees and telephone lines, a number of which are out of order as the result.

The most serious accident occurred at the farm of WILLIAM REYNOLDS, NEW SCOTLAND, where a fine big bank barn was blown down and is a total wreck. One horse was injured so badly as to render its destruction necessary.

There is still a large proportion of the bean crop unharvested and it is suffering much through the frequent rains. During today's storm the rainfall was heavy.
