Eight barns, said to have been demolished.

Phone conversation with Mr Charles Peters (519)-676-8512
(Blenheim, Ont) and Mr Oliver Peters (519) 689-4347.
by P. Elms. Sept 30 1980: regarding Port Alma vicinity, tornado of Wed July 2 1958.

The tornado came from the Northwest and hit only 3 buildings. The first building was a machine shop on the road one mile northwest of the Charles Peters farm. The tornado then demolished Mr Peters barn, carry roof debris on to the roof of his house causing considerable damage.

A healthy hickory tree, 18" in diameter, in the front of Peters house was twisted off. Trees were felled as the tornado crossed highway 3.

Mr Peters has a framed, colour photograph of the damage to his farm, taken from the air. His address: 181 Talbot St. East. Box 1583, Blenheim ONT NOP 180

Mention was made by Mr C. Peters of a tornado that struck the area in Sept. 1948, and wreck eight farms along the highway (3?). Mr Peters brother Oliver said that damage was bad at Parkhill.
