

Date : Wednesday, May 17, 1967

Time : N/A, likely around noon

Location : Near Scarborough Village, Toronto

F-Rating : F1 'C'

Track Length : May have been two brief touchdowns about 20km apart

Max Width : N/A

Direction : N/A° likely W-E or WSW-ENE

Shape : N/A, "wind stirred dust up from a vacant lot"

Injuries : 0 (possibly some minor)

Deaths : 0

Damage Cost : N/A, likely some cost as a power pole fell on a truck.

Notes : Construction foreman was in his truck downtown eating lunch when a power pole fell on his truck. In Scarborough, a woman was walking with her baby and young child when the possible tornado struck, flattening the young child against a fence while the mother grabbed her baby as the stroller was thrown. No serious injuries reported.

Photos/Videos : None in EC file. Check listed references for images.