ONT. TORNADO

THE BARRIE ADVANCE, WEDNESDAY AUGUST 16 1939.

STORM DATE: SAT., AUG. 12, 1939

THE ORILLIA NEWS LETTER.

Several almost unbelievable incidents occurred in this district during the severe wind and electrical storm on Saturday.

693904

At J.F.TURNBULL'S farm, at ARDTREA, a sudden twister of wind lifted a canoe, which had been pulled up on the lake shore, over two wire fences and smashed it against a barn, over a hundred yards away. The canoe was later found badly damaged by Mrs. Turnbull.

At FENNIS STORE, at FLORAL PARK, the top half of a large tree broke and planted itself in the front of a parked car. Fortunately no one was in the car at the time.

In the UHTHOFF area, a silo on the farm of ARCHIE FYFE was knocked completely over by a twister.
